There has been gradual attrition of the doctrine of charitable immunity in the General Assembly, as you may know. Hospitals were required to carry up to $100,000 insurance and if they did, they were not liable beyond that.

I think it is a step in the right direction.

I say we are making a real hit and miss attempt at the problem. We don't have the facts, we have a fountain of misinformation.

THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to speak in opposition?

DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: Mr. President and members of the Committee. In our committee we gave considerable thought to this and at first the committee was rather hostile, I thought, to the doctrine of removal of sovereign immunity, but on the hearing we concluded that the old doctrine of sovereign immunity coming down from the king of England when the king could do no wrong and in this modern day and age, it was all wrong to have the doctrine of sovereign immunity applied.
